Today's Market Overview

Sunday, April 10, 2016

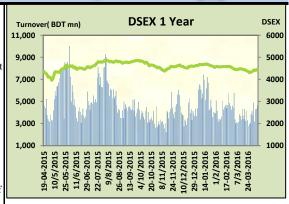

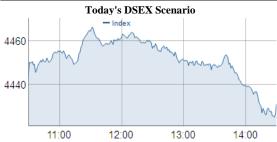

Market observed sharp fall after two days of gain with slightly improved turnover. The premier bourse of the nation opened with positive mood and gained almost 30 points till the midsession, soon after the midsession market observed extensive sale pressure thus pushed market in the red zone and market couldn't come out from the red zone moreover velocity of sale pressure intensified in last hour. Turnover was the main vibration tool throughout the session and that actually eased the tension of the investors as it crossed 4.5 billion with continuing mood.
