After three days of Bull Run market mow down the bearish rope and observed slight correction with a heavily improved turnover. It seemed side liner investors get in to the fence as some positive movement prevailed in market in last couple of days but it couldn't end in positive mark as active investors were busy in picking the quick gain. Market observed more than 2000 million turnover in the first hour and market gained almost 57 points and soon after the first hour market started getting sale pressure from the opportunity hunters but market recovered that sale pressure very quickly, again late hour vigorous sale pressure flooded away the buoyancy and ended with negative mood. Most of the major & prominent sectors failed to keep the momentum in last hour.
